

BPHC Enrichment Series for Grantees

Expanding Service Delivery through the National Health Service Corps

Tuesday, February 3, 2015

1:30 to 3 pm ET

This session will provide an overview of the National Health Service Corps (NHSC) Programs and how they can be used by community health centers for recruitment and retention of clinicians. A panel of experts comprised of NHSC leadership, health center physicians, and NHSC scholar and loan repayment recipients will provide best practices of grantees who utilize the NHSC program. This session also will include examples of recruitment and retention strategies for health centers in both rural and urban environments.

Moderators

- Tracy McClintock, Bureau of Health Workforce
- Nathalia H. Drew, Bureau of Primary Health Care
- Jeff Jordan, Bureau of Health Workforce
- CAPT Edwin Vazquez, Bureau of Primary Health Care

Panel of Experts

- CAPT Jeanean Willis-Marsh, Director, National Health Services Corps, Bureau of Health Workforce
- Dr. Ellen Piernot, Chief Medical Officer, Sunset Community Health Center, Yuma, AZ
- Mr. David J. Atondo, Nurse Practitioner, Sunset Community Health Center, Yuma, AZ
- Dr. Aysha Corbett, Deputy Medical Director, Unity Health Care, Washington, DC
- Dr. Ryan Buchholz, Nurse Practitioner, Unity Health Care, Washington, DC

Agenda (1.5 hours)

Agenda Item	Led By
Introduction & Opening Remarks	Tracy McClintock
Learning Objective 1: Educate and update Health Center grantees on the National Health Service Corps (NHSC) Program	CAPT Jeanean Willis-Marsh
Panel Discussion	Nathalia Drew
Learning Objective 2: Highlight best practices and relationships of grantees who utilize the NHSC	Dr. Ellen Piernot, Sunset Dr. Aysha Corbett, Unity
Learning Objective 3: Compare and contrast retention and recruitment strategies for rural and urban environments	Dr. Ellen Piernot, Sunset Dr. Aysha Corbett, Unity
Learning Objective 4: Feature NHSC program participants experience working in community health centers	Mr. David Atondo, Sunset Dr. Ryan Buchholz, Unity
Q&A	Jeff Jordan
Closing	CAPT Edwin Vazquez